The question has been asked: "Is the current world economic situation linked to the current universal energy cycle?"

In reality, everything (good and bad) is linked to, or at least reflected in, the unfolding universal energy flow; and as the current energy cycle is analysed, there are 4 distinct phases that we will pass through:

Phase 1: Current (21 Sep 08) to c. 09 June 2009

This will be a time of great human (especially 2nd cohort) unrest, illusion, political agenda, exploitation, and totally unpredictable bi-polar direction swings. A general panic unfolds, and the conflict between the financial elite, the political elite, and the industry elite becomes irrational and so globalized that it also becomes transparent - people just will not see it.

The banking elite will blackmail the political elite, and will hold the industry elite to ransom. Consequently, government will lie, deceive, and exploit the masses to preserve their perceived power base. At the same time, the political elite will be forced, by the banking elite on one side and the industrial elite on the other, to pour an endless flood of money into the banking and industry sectors; however, there will be no accountability of any party or groups concerned, and moreover, there will be no visible benefit whatever.

Today, the collateral for the political elite's funding is simply the exploitable masses at their disposal. The western economies will fall to post war levels; and it is unlikely that the true levels of "toxic financial-fallout and elite mismanagement" will ever be known or revealed.

Phase 2: c. 09 June 2009 to c. 13 June 2010

During this phase, the initial fall-out will be reaching its zenith, and a surreal reality will slowly surface. Consequently, a very, very, slow and tortuous recovery will be emerging at the end of this period. Unfortunately, it will be a very slow recovery because of the greed, exploitation, and repositioning of our elitist factions (political, financial, and industrial). However, this will not be a problem for the self-determined individual; because, they operate above the dark and self-interested elite level, and their vision is both clear and far reaching. Consequently, they will attract and be attracted to all that they desire, and this is because of who they are. Conversely, the unwashed masses will continue to be so, and they will be the new collateral upon which the new order is based. In reality we have gone the full cycle back to slavery again - this has ever been the way of the Homo Sapiens/2nd Cohort - subvert, enslave, and exploit.

Phase 3: c. 13 June 2010 to c. 05 June 2011

At last "signs of recovery" will begin to manifest. However, it will continue to be a long, slow, and difficult period; but things will be moving in the "right direction" and, from the end of this period, re-investment, re-financing, and expansion projects can be considered.

Phase 4: c. 05 June 2011 onward

It is only from this point that forward movement can again take place; and the good news is that the world will not end in 2012 - despite the prophecies to the contrary. Currently, 98% of everything being presented by the human species to the human species is illusion, and is founded upon deliberately engineered falsehood (physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual).

The Key

To ensure that we correctly synchronise with, and utilize, the unfolding energy, serious pondering and personal synchronisation must be effected on an ongoing basis. Moreover, it is essential that the evolving universal energy is synchronised with us as individuals, and then flows through us without any restriction or attenuation. Consequently, it is recommended that the chakras are kept balanced but closed. Additionally, daily visualisation, etc, should be done, to ensure that the maximum vision, the maximum growth, and the maximum attraction of all that we need are maintained.

End
