Just the Facts...

Welcome

Welcome to another newsletter... and another year...

In this issue, by popular demand, we reprint the characteristics that distinguish the Homo Spiritus individual.

As always, no hugs, just the facts... So let's jump right in...

Kind regards,

Lifting the Veil

Homo Spiritus Characteristics

By popular demand, here is a reprint of the characteristics that distinguish the Homo Spiritus individual (the next level of evolution) from the Homo Sapiens individual (the current level of evolution).

It has been noted that individuals exhibiting the characteristics of the Homo Spiritus have been increasingly appearing on earth since the mid 20th Century.

I have identified Homo Spiritus as an individual who exhibits one or more of the following characteristics (this is not an exhaustive list):

- 1) The individual feels that they are somehow 'different' from other people.
- 2) The individual has a pale or translucent skin, and veins are readily visible under the surface (especially on the inside of the arms, and sometimes in the palms of the hands).
- 3) The individual is attracted to, and is invigorated by sunlight.
- 4) The individual may feel uncomfortable when exposed to crowds of people.
- 5) The individual may have an aversion to eating animal products.
- 6) The individual often finds life on the Earth to be anxiety producing, uncomfortable, boring, or meaningless.
- 7) The individual may shun 'normal' society and be somewhat reclusive.
- 8) The individual is often emotionally intense, and may experience diverse mood swings.
- 9) At times, the individual may become disassociated, and lose touch with reality and the passing of time.
- 10) The individual may have problems retaining images and information in their short-term and real-world (physical) memory.
- 11) The individual has vivid dreams that often depict other periods of time, other dimensions of reality, parallel lives, other species, other worlds, or UFOs.
- 12) The individual may experience recurring dreams or nightmares.
- 13) The individual may have feelings of déjà vu.
- 14) The individual's family and friends have always considered the individual to be 'different', or 'a little strange'.
- 15) The individual may not always act and speak politically correctly.
- 16) The individual may have feelings that their parents are not their 'true' parents.
- 17) Some individuals may not centre their life on the accumulation of wealth and/or power. However, because of their intensive natures, others will seriously and vigorously pursue wealth and/or power.
- 18) At times, the individual sees 'the good' in other people to the point of being naïve.
- 19) The individual is overly trusting and gullible, and can easily be taken advantage of, or misled (especially spiritually).
- 20) The individual has a strange attraction and yearning towards the stars.
- 21) The individual has a desire to 'wake up', 'change', 'teach', 'illuminate', and/or 'heal' the inhabitants of the Earth.
- 22) The individual questions all things, is often rebellious, and may be a social revolutionary.
- 23) The individual is attracted to, and is easily lost in the 'paranormal', 'fantasy', and/or the 'mysteries'.
- 24) The individual is drawn towards and has an interest in Atlantis, Egypt, and other ancient civilisations.
- 25) The individual is drawn towards, and has an interest in Native American cultures.
- 26) The individual is drawn to the esoteric, metaphysics, and the occult.
- 27) The individual is often happier considering the past, than in considering the present or the future.
- 28) The individual is interested in developing and enhancing their creative, abstract, philosophical, and spiritual talents.
- 29) The individual may feel an aversion to technology.
- 30) The individual may suffer from insomnia.

- 31) The individual is hypersensitive to physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual influences.
- 32) The individual may be predisposed to headaches, migraines, hearing, and/or eyesight problems.
- 33) The individual may be predisposed to skin problems, and may be hypersensitive to strong light (esp. sunlight).
- 34) The individual may be predisposed to respiratory, digestive, or assimilation disorders.
- 35) The individual has unseen friends or companions as a child.
- 36) The individual has unseen guides or guardians as an adult.
- 37) The individual has the ability to recall past lives.
- 38) The individual has difficulty in differentiating between past-life events and present-life events.
- 39) The individual readily and easily projects their consciousness.
- 40) The individual has an innate understanding of the cycles of reincarnation.
- 41) The individual expresses an innate psychic or channelling ability.
- 42) The individual expresses an innate healing ability.
- 43) The individual is drawn towards alternative life styles, alternative therapies, and alternative medicine.
- 44) The individual has an innate ability to see auras.
- 45) The individual has a well-developed genesis field.
- 46) The individual has a yellow, gold, or crystal coloured aura.
- 47) The individual never has a violet, purple, or blue aura.
- 48) The individual has an innate understanding of the cycles of birth and death.
- 49) The individual has a unique perception of morality.
- 50) The individual has a great love of nature and natural surroundings.
- 51) The individual may feel that their current life is going to be their last incarnation on the Earth.
- 52) The Homo Spiritus form is resistant to uncontrolled cycles of reincarnation and amnesia of past existence when the spirit-form joins with the physical body.

Something to Ponder

Reality

Man reaches within for reality and by reaching within, the individual confirms the three dimensions to his existence:

- 1) Expression - The individual expresses what they are - a unique reflection of the source.
- 2) Perception - The individual perceives what they are - a unique reflection of the source. However, they also perceive other 'expressions' of the source, external to themselves, which the individual is not.

- 3) Desire/will - The individual strongly desires to explore, experience, unify, and to be expanded by that which they are not; and 'will' is the driving force.
